Pashupatinath Temple, with its astonishing architectural beauty, stands as a symbol of faith, religion, culture, and tradition. It is one of the most sacred Hindu Lord Shiva shrines in the world and is situated 5 kilometer east of Kathmandu's heart, on the banks of the sacred Bagmati River.

Pashupatinath temple also the temple of Lord Shiva possessed a two-storied golden roof and silver doors and is famous for its superb architecture. The richly-ornamented pagoda houses the sacred Linga, or phallic symbol, of Lord Shiva. Chronicles indicate the temple's existence prior to 400 AD. Devotees can be seen taking ritual dips in the holy Bagmati River flowing beside the temple. Only Hindu pilgrims can enter the premises of the temple. Non-Hindus can admire the beauty of the temple from the other side of the Bagmati River, on the banks of which Pashupatinath Temple stands.

Bouddhanath Stupa is the largest stupa in Nepal and the holiest Tibetan Buddhist temple outside Tibet which is said to be 2500 years old. It is the center of Tibetan culture in Kathmandu and is rich in Buddhist symbolism. on the eastern outskirts of Kathmandu with four pairs of eyes of Lord Buddha in four cardinal directions keeping an eternal watch over the people and their doings. The stupa, a well-known Buddhist pilgrimage site, is included in the World Heritage Cultural site list by UNESCO.

Bhaktapur Durbar Square is listed as World Heritage Site. It is one of the most charming Architectural showpieces of the valley as it highlights the ancient arts of Nepal. As you walk in, you will feel a sense of inner harmony. Bhaktapur Durbar Square is a collection of pagoda and shikhara–style temples grouped around a fifty-five-window palace of brick and wood. The Square contains innumerable temples and other architectural showpieces like the Lion Gate, the statue of King Bhupatindra Malla, the Golden Gate, the palaces of 55 windows, the Batsala temple, etc.
