Bhutan has many activities available for those visitors seeking a place of solace, rest and recuperation. Whether it's a session of peaceful, contemplative meditation, a relaxing soak in a mineral hot spring bath or the all-natural remedies of our traditional medicine Bhutan has just what you need to revive and rejuvenate your body and spirit. Many tourists come to Bhutan for meditation and retreat tours. Some itineraries include serious meditation programs that last for days while others offer solitary retreats for few hours in the high hills and temples where the serenity and beauty of nature can be appreciated in undisturbed silence.

In this tour package, you will be taught about different yoga sessions on a daily basis. You will practice your yoga and meditation in small retreat centers and hermitages which are located all over the country, usually next to temples, monasteries and monastic schools. During these yoga journeys, you will tread softly on the path of the soul, as well as the cultural, historical, and spiritual treasures of the mystical, ancient land of Bhutan. Expect to connect your mind, body, and spirit to Bhutan's secret recipe for happiness on this journey. The route also takes you through small villages, bamboo forests and across sparkling mountain streams. Along the way, trekkers will cross a mountain pass from which there is an absolutely stunning view of mountains, green valleys and rivers seated below majestic snow-covered mountains.
