Highlights

Overview

Nepal Golden Triangle Birding Tour comprises of the most three famous towns of Nepal which includes: Kathmandu, Pokhara and Chitwan.

Golden triangle tour is one of the most famous tour packages in Nepal while we have added a birding tour within. The tour consists of the sightseeing tour along with bird watching activities in the three most developed cities of Nepal. Kathmandu, the heart of the country and the capital city is full of heritage sites among which some are enlisted in World Heritage Sites. Pokhara, city of lakes is full of natural beauty and have never depressed its visitors to entertain and attract them with their natural beauty. Chitwan, holding most of the abundant resources of flora and fauna is the only place where an endangered species “One horned Rhinos” are found along with other several species of Birds. All of the place have their own importance and are equally a paradise for the bird watchers.

Our tour begins with a scenic drive from Kathmandu to Pokhara along the Prithivi highway passing through paddy fields, green valley and river. The next day we will get engage full day in bird watching tour. From Pokhara, we will drive towards Chitwan and enjoy several other wild life activities along with bird watching tour. The choice is yours; you can select the specific wild life activities like: Jeep Safari, Jungle Walk, Canoe Ride, Elephant ride, Tharu village Tour, etc. or just get entertained by observing several species of birds that are found in Chitwan national park.

After staying three overnight at Chitwan, you will be driven back to Kathmandu and will visit Godavari Botanical Garden for observing the bird species found in Kathmandu. In this way, we will complete our 9 day golden triangle tour. Though this tour can be done throughout the year but we would like to recommend you to travel from February to March, August to November as the climate will be favorable during these period letting you more chances to observe the migratory birds.

After breakfast, drive from Pokhara to Chitwan which will take around five hours to reach Chitwan. You will enjoy the views of enormous plains of the Terai region while driving towards Chitwan. Chitwan National Park is declared as World Heritage Site under the category of Natural Sites by UNESCO. This is the first national park of Nepal established in 1973 to preserve a unique ecosystem significantly valuable to the whole world. The park covering a pristine area of 932 sq. km is situated in the subtropical inner Terai lowlands of southern central part of Nepal. The park has gained much wider recognition in the world when UNESCO included this area on the list of World Heritage Site in 1984. It shares its eastern border with Parsa Wildlife Reserve. Chitwan is one of Asia's best's wildlife – viewing spots and the place to don your safari togs, clamber atop a lumbering elephant and head into the dawn mist in search of rhinos and tiger. 8% of the world bird species, rare mammals including one horned rhinoceros and the Bengal tiger makes it exclusive. Once reaching your destination, you will be briefed about the jungle activities. You can later enjoy the sunset view along the bank of Rapti River. Once the night falls down, we entertain you with cultural performances including bonfire before getting in bed.

Day 5 : Full Day Bird Watching tour in Chitwan National Park

On the following day, you will enjoy a full-day birding tour inside Chitwan National Park, accompanied by a nature walk. Each year, dedicated bird watchers and conservationists survey bird species occurring all over the country. In 2006, they recorded 543 species in the Chitwan National Park, much more than in any other protected area in Nepal and about two-thirds of Nepal's globally threatened species. Additionally, 20 black-chinned yuhina, a pair of Gould's sunbirds, a pair of blossom-headed parakeets, and one slaty-breasted rail, an uncommon winter visitor, were sighted in spring 2008.

Especially the park's alluvial grasslands are important habitats for the critically endangered Bengal florican, the vulnerable lesser adjutant, grey-crowned prinia, swamp francolin, and several species of grass warblers. In 2005, more than 200 slender-billed babblers were sighted in three different grassland types. The threatened Oriental darter is a resident breeder around the many lakes, where also egrets, bitterns, storks, and kingfishers abound. The park is one of the few known breeding sites of the globally threatened spotted eagle. Peafowl and jungle fowl scratch their heads on the forest floor.

Day 6 : Full day Jungle safari in Chitwan national park

Today you'll experience a jungle safari in Chitwan, which teems with wildlife. You'll get plenty of options for Jungle Safari, including a jeep ride, canoeing ride, jungle walk, and tower night stay.

It is home to myriad wild animals like the One-horned Rhino, Royal Bengal tiger, Asian elephant, Sloth bear, Golden Jackal, Hog Deer, Sambhar, Striped Hyenas, Bengal Foxes, Gaur (Indian Bison), etc. Along with animals, there are more than 600 species of birds, both resident and migratory, including Great Hornbill, Kingfisher, Pheasants, and Barbets. Also, the Rapti river, which flows through the park, harbors species of crocodiles such as Gharial and Mugger.

Day 7 : Drive back to kathmandu 1380m - 7 hrs

On the following day, you will be driven back to Kathmandu via Prithvi highway. The drive will take around six to seven hours depending upon traffic to reach Kathmandu from Chitwan. Upon your arrival at Kathmandu, you will be transferred to your respective hotel for overnight stay.

Day 8 : Birding around the Kathmandu

Kathmandu is home to a variety of birds like the Sparrow, Crow, Bulbul, Parrot, Pigeon, Koel, Owl, and Dove, which can be enjoyed mostly anytime, and on this day we are likely to wake up early in the morning. After breakfast, drive to the Godawari forest, Godawari, and Phulchoki, which are very famous for the wide variety of birds as well as wild life. Entertain yourself by observing several species of birds' throughout the day. After lunch, hike down and drive back to Kathmandu.
