Highlights

Overview

Ultralight aircraft take off from Pokhara airport and offer spectacular views of the lakes, mountains and villages. This is an ideal way to see life from a new perspective. The choice of Pokhara Valley for ultralight aircraft is appropriate chiefly because of the proximity of the mountains, and the beautiful lakes. For those who wished they could fly like birds when growing up, this flight is a must. It might be lonely at the top, but the spectacular view from up high certainly makes it all worth it.

Pokhara is known as the “Jewel in the Himalaya”, a place of remarkable natural beauty. Situated at an altitude of 827m above sea level and 200km west of Kathmandu (Capital of Nepal), the city is a Centre of Adventure. The serenity of Fewa Lake and the magnificence of the Himalayas rising behind it create an ambience of peace and magic. Today the city has become a starting point for trekking and rafting and also a place to relax and enjoy nature in all its beauty. Adding some flavor to the adventure, ultra-light aircraft flight has been a choice of everyone who visits Pokhara. Ultra-Flights fulfil one’s imagination of flying through the clouds. It is a form of free flight which gives you this rewarding experience, something that one rarely gets to do. Go up in an ultra-light aircraft and get a sweeping bird’s eye view of the entire Pokhara Valley. This is an exhilarating ride that allows unhindered views of the mountains and the scenic lakes far below. Ultralight is a very light aircraft that has seating for only two persons, including a pilot and a passenger. Professional ultralight flights started in Nepal in 1997 AD and is claimed to be the first in South Asia. Day 4 : Full Day sightseeing tour around Pokhara city along with an hour boat ride

If in the previous day, you were not able to enjoy the Ultra-light aircraft service then you still have the chance on this day. If not you can proceed for full day sightseeing tour of the most famous places of Pokhara which includes: Davi's fall, Gupteswor cave, Mahendra Cave, Bats Cave, Bindyabasini Temple, Barahi Temple and Seti George.

Davi's fall is a waterfall. On 31 July 1961, a Swiss couple Davi went swimming but the woman drowned in a pit because of the overflow. Her body was recovered 3 days later in river Phusre with great effort. Her father wished to name it "Davi's falls" after her. Its Nepali name is Patale Chango, which means "underworld waterfall".

Gupteswor Cave is a city shrine dedicated to Lord Shiva. It is a world-famous pilgrim site. It is a limestone cave discovered some time ago and has a number of scenic spots around. The main attraction is the gigantic Shiva Linga which is said to be increasing in size.

Mahendra Cave is a cave located close to the Seti River. It is a rare example of a cave system in Nepal containing stalagmites and stalactites. A statue of Hindu lord Shiva can be found inside the cave. The cave is full of limestone, which falls to the ground and continuously forms electrical sparks.

Bat Cave, which is also known as the natural habitat of bats, is also worth of visiting, and is, located a ten-minute walk away from Mahendra Cave. It is 150 m long and 25 ft. high. The main entrance of this cave is quite narrow but the inner part is wide enough. The main specialty of this cave is that there are more than 15 thousand bats of different species. Images of elephant tusks, gods, and goddesses can be observed in the inner walls of the cave.

Bindyabasini temple is the center of religious activity situated in the small hill-lock in between the main old bazaar and Bagar area at an elevation of 3000 feet above sea level. It is one of the oldest temples in the Pokhara valley and has an immense cultural value dedicated to Goddess Bhagawati.

Seti George also known as Seti Khola, where "Seti" means "White" and "Khola" means "River". This is the holiest river of western Nepal, which is fed by snow of Machhapuchhre and Annapurna mountains. It is also famous for rafting and has unspoiled greenish jungle scenery, excellent bird watching site, local cultural heritage and beautiful clean beaches, many small and undemanding rapids.

Tal Barahi Temple, also known as Lake Temple or Barahi Temple is a two story pagoda temple located in Kaski District in western Nepal. The Temple is a small pagoda-style temple devoted to the deity Tal Barahi and is surrounded by the crystal clear waters of Phewa Lake. The roof of the temple is of copper sheets and the Gajur (pinnacle) is made of Pittal (brass with gold coated). A stone idol of Barahi Devi is placed inside the temple.

After sightseeing of these famous places of Pokhara, you will be transferred to the hotel for overnight stay.

Day 5 : Drive back to Kathmandu

Taking back the good memories, you will drive back through the same route. After drive about six hours, you will reach Kathmandu and will be transferred to your respective hotel. Spend rest of the time, exploring the local markets of the town where you can shop and buy souvenir for your near and dear ones.

Day 6 : Depending upon your flight schedule, Transfer to airport for departure.

Your journey in Nepal comes to an end today. As this is the last day of Ultra-light aircraft Tour, you will prepare for your departure on this day. Make sure you have got all your souvenirs in your luggage and have all the necessary documents to make it easy for the immigration officials at the International airport. You will be transferred to the airport by private vehicle depending upon your departure flight schedule. The tours around Kathmandu ends but the memories will be eternal.
